

BLIZZARD BROUGHT HARDSHIP IN AREA

TAXPAYERS FOR HIGHER GAS TAX

The Taxpayers' Town Meeting held last Thursday night at Far-ragut school, Joliet, under auspices of the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois went on record as favoring a proposal to increase the state motor fuel tax as a means of raising additional revenue for highway purposes.

Despite a howling blizzard which raged outside, 79 motorists braved the elements to listen to George E. Mohin, executive secretary of the Taxpayers' Federation and Maurice W. Scott, Federation attorney in charge of legal research, who discussed the gas tax proposal and other revenue matters which will be presented to the 1951 session of the Illinois General Assembly which convenes in Springfield next January 3. Both are Springfield men. J. C. MacKeever, President of the Gerach-Barklow Company of Joliet, was chairman.

After a discussion of legislative matters, sample ballots were distributed and the audience voted their sentiments on various issues. On the proposal to raise the gasoline tax, the vote was favorable, 39 to 13. Twenty-nine favored a raise of one cent a gallon, six voted for two cents, and only three were for an increase as great as 3 cents.

Of those voting, 31 felt that the increased revenue should be spent on the state's primary road system while 17 favored allocation of funds to townships, which do not now share the state's present three cent gasoline tax.

Deadline for ACP Program is Dec. 31

Soil conservation practices under the 1950 ACP program must be carried out by December 31, 1950. Conrad Borms, Chairman of the Will County PMA Committee, pointed out that this means that such practices must be completed with materials spread on the field in order to qualify for payment. He also said, "An allowance for conservation work which is established under the 1950 program must be earned in 1950. Otherwise, the payment is entirely lost to the individual farmer. In addition to this, national mobilization may cut supplies and transportation facilities, so it's a good idea to apply lime and fertilizers now while they are still generally available."

The deadline date for reporting work completed is January 12, 1951. Evidence may be mailed to the Will County PMA Committee 157 North Ottawa Street, Joliet.

Void Tax Law May Mean No Pay Days

The Will county board of review will hold a special session this month starting December 18 to straighten out the tax assessments muddle caused by the supervisor of assessments law being declared void.

The 24 town assessors of this county were asked by the newly elected collector, Byron Hunte, to meet at the courthouse Tuesday, when they were given their 1950 tax books. Each assessor was asked to go over his books to determine if any changes had been made in the last assessments and if so to make any adjustments he considers necessary.

The assessors have been requested to make the examination of their books and return them by Saturday so that the board of review will be able to complete the work in their session extraordinary before the end of the year.

Unless this work is completed by that time county employees including teachers, patrolmen and firemen may have payless pay days, as until the present situation is cleared up, tax anticipation warrants may not be sold.

The Taxpayers Federation of Illinois are now suggesting that the state revenue department should get an opinion at once whether this reassessment process now ordered is legal and also if tax anticipation warrants may be sold.

The teacher is Miss Isabella Harmering.

Makes Report On Donations to CROP

Lawrence Kohl, who has been chairman for CROP, in Frankfort township, reports that soliciting and delivery of donations have been completed. CROP, the Christian Rural Overseas Program, was organized to collect food and funds for the needy all over the world, and is conducted by Christian churches in this country. Twenty-one protestant sects, the Catholic and Lutheran churches are united in the work.

The quota set for the middle west, when the movement was started in 1947, was 3555 bushels of grain, most of which was sent to Europe. This year the quota for Illinois alone is 300,000 bushels of grain. Because of the difficulty in handling oats and other small grain these have not been collected but soy beans and corn are being taken.

Mr. Kohl collected $186.00 and 40 bushels of corn, which was taken to Wilton Center, the CROP center for Will county. Harlow Nicholson, of Manhattan, is the county chairman.

Mr. Kohl wishes to express his appreciation to those who helped him with solicitations and to the people of Frankfort township, who donated to this worthy cause. All donations are handled by the churches and are actually delivered to the needy. The money donated is used to buy corn or soy beans which is shipped to overseas needy.

Fire Damages New Lenox Property

A fire on the property on south Cedar road, near the Michigan Central tracks, in New Lenox, destroyed part of a chicken house, with damage reported about $500. The fire which started about 10:45 Sunday night, was thought to have been caused by defective wiring.

The property is occupied by Ralph Gasper, a painter, who has been conducting a business making decorations and decals in the building that was damaged. A. P. Klasing, who is in Florida, owns the property.

Sale Postponed

Because of the inclement weather, the farm sale at the Allendale Farm 103rd and 88th avenue, North Palos Park, has been indefinitely postponed. The ad which appears on another page in this issue gives the date for the sale for Sunday, December 17.

O. P. STUDENTS IN STYLE SHOW

In a program planned by the Homemaker II students, the McCall Teen-Tog Traveling Wardrobe was presented to the general assembly at Orland Park High school Monday, December 11.

The style show of school fashions was narrated by Marion Senglin. The music was selected and arranged by Marjorie Yunker and played by Donna Cowan. Attractive programs prepared by the class were presented to guests by Louise LeCompte and Viola Kats.

Johnny Oglesby, Eleanor Larimore, Elaine Mahnk and Ann Marie Lehr served as wardrobe mistresses.

As the music played, "I Said My Pajamas" Lorraine Spragg appeared in a cotton plisse crepe house coat. As the music changed to a medley of school tunes, Karen Lebons, Nancy Heyden and Janet Townner modeled three pretty class room costumes in cotton fabrics. Helen Schult, Betty Show and Gladys Cervenka modeled mix and match costumes, which could be used in a variety of combinations. Doris Schult danced across the floor to the strains of "Skip To My Lou" in a skirt and blouse designed for square dancing which had been made by Johnny Oglesby.

"Cecilia" brought Annabelle Johnson to the floor in an attractive velvet suit, followed by Doris Cooper in the hit of the show—fakie-fur skirt in a leopard print topped with a felt jacket.

The climax of the show came when Jeannette Kats modeled a red and black plaid formal trimmed with black nylon velvet.

Mr. Peters has submitted several proposed plats for dividing the property, which lies within the village limits. Before a plan is approved many details have to be considered including those relating to street layout, water and drainage.

Charles Holm and Lois Brockway Married December 9

Friends of Charles Holm of Mokena are being duly surprised to learn of his recent marriage. He and Miss Lois Brockway, 617 Ida street, Joliet, stole a march on their friends and traveled to Crown Point, Ind., Saturday, December 9 where they were married. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holm of Mokena.

Following the ceremony they returned to their parents' homes and announced their wedding. A wedding dinner was given in the Holm home Sunday for the immediate families members. The new Mrs. Holm was presented a corsage of yellow button "Mums" and lavender daisies. The table appointments were of the same flowers and colors. The bride cake formed the table centerpiece, which was later cut and served by the bride and groom.

The young couple met last year at the Joliet Junior college where they were both students. Mr. Holm is now employed at the International Harvester company at Hinsdale and the bride is in the law offices of Hutchison and Barnes in Joliet.

They are living in an apartment at 225 Union street, Joliet. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

Unusual Film To Be Shown at Lincoln

Heathen customs hidden in South Africa, jungles and a monkey killed, cooked, and eaten are a few of the dramatic sequences included in the new 16 mm. sound color film, "To Every Creature", to be shown in the Calvary Baptist church, on Route 1 (Rt. 45 and 30) Lincoln Estates, Frankfort, Wednesday, December 20 at 8:00 p.m., according to the Rev. William Kerr, pastor.

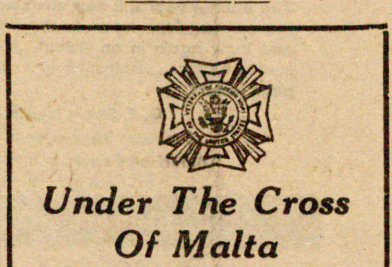

Filmed and recorded on a recent trip to South America by Dr. Irwin Moon, director of the Los Angeles branch of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, "To Every Creature" is a fresh approach to missionary activities. These Indian tribes, shown as they exist without help, hope, and God, have received a message from missionaries that has changed hearts and transformed lives; but the work could be multiplied by modern transportation and communication. "To Every Creature" demonstrates this by actual stories of missionaries who suffered great hardships and narrowly escaped death in canoes and on jungle trails. Other sequences show the real help modern communications and planes give to the pioneer mission workers.

"To Every Creature" emphasizes training missionary technicians as plots and for maintenance repair, communication and photography work on the mission field. These subjects are included in the new missionary technical training course at Moody Bible Institute. With these technical specialists on hand, others trained in Bible work can devote more time to preaching and teaching the natives.

Child Wives

Two child wives, ages nine and fourteen, of a jungle Indian chieftan from Chiapas, southernmost state of Mexico, pose with their Sunday dinner — a dried monkey. Monkey eaters form a startling sequence in the newest Moody Institute of Science sound color film, "To Every Creature", produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon. The film will be shown in the Calvary Baptist church, Lincoln Estates, Wednesday, December 20 at 8:00 pm.

Under The Cross Of Malta

Next Thursday, December 14 has been designated for the obligation of recruits. If the weather permits we should have a good turnout so we can cover any business necessary.

Saturday, December 16 is the date for the Hard Time Dance. Bert Beattie's orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music. Admission will be 50c per person. Everyone can put on burlesque or any other hard time costume.

We are into December already and we still do not have 100% paid up membership. One hundred percent is the goal we have set out to attain, but since this is the Christmas season, we do not want anyone to stay away from meetings because they do not have their 1951 membership cards as yet.

Mokena Will Have a Vil. Christmas Tree

Mokena will have a community Christmas tree again this year. It is being made possible through the efforts of the Civic association, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Businessmen association, the Volunteer Fire department and the Wayfarers group.

It will be erected and trimmed in about the same place as former years, along the Rock Island railroad. More details will be given next week about plans for activities connected with it.

POLIO TAKES FRANKFORT BOY

All Frankfort was grieved last week when they learned of the illness of Lawrence, the 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Engelmann of Frankfort.

The Engelmann's other son Kenneth, returned home from Silver Cross hospital Tuesday, December 5 following an emergency appendectomy. His brother Lawrence, who had a little cold for a few days, became quite ill on his birthday, Wednesday, December 6. Dr. W. H. Cave was called and had him removed to Silver Cross hospital at once.

At first it was thought he was ill with pneumonia but soon his illness was diagnosed as infantile paralysis. Every effort was made to save his life, as the disease progressed rapidly. A tracheotomy was performed which consisted in making an incision in his throat to help him to breathe when breathing became difficult because of the gathering of mucus in the throat. Following that, through the efforts of Dr. John Carey of the Will County PMA Foundation, a respirator was brought from the Hinsdale sanatorium, but Larry, as he was intimately known, succumbed to the disease Sunday.

Larry was born in Frankfort where he lived all his life. He was graduated from the Frankfort public school and was a student in the sophomore class of the Joliet Township high school at the time of his death. He also was a member of the capella choir in the school and was to have taken part in its annual Christmas concert given last Sunday.

Larry had a kindly and happy disposition and was well liked by all who knew him.

Surviving beside his parents are three brothers, Kenneth, Lester and Thomas all of Frankfort, his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Engelmann and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bogda of Blue Island. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in the St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church with the pastor, Rev. Erich Bizer officiating. Burial was made in Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Mrs. E. Engelmann In Auto Accident During Snow Storm

While Mrs. Emanuel Engelmann of Frankfort was driving to Silver Cross hospital last Friday, December 8, to visit her son Larry, who was a Polio patient there, she figured in an auto accident a mile east of New Lenox.

It will be recalled that the blizzard was quite severe at that time and route 30 was coated with ice, which caused her car, which she was driving, to skid and it collided with a truck.

Elmer E. Rieckmann, 39, of Duquaine, Iowa was driving a truck owned by the North Home Furniture company and was headed east. No one was injured but Mrs. Engelmann's new model car was badly damaged.

Large Attendance at New Lenox Church Celebration Sunday

The New Lenox Methodist church was filled to capacity with members and friends who came to help celebrate 50 years spent in the present church building.

Rev. Ralph Miller, pastor, led the service and directed the senior choir. Mrs. Carlton Cole directed the large junior choir.

There was one person present who was also present at the laying of the corner stone of the building. He was Mr. Jeff Deig, 88, who now lives in Western Springs with his daughter, Mrs. Pahnke. There were quite a number of people present who attended the church during Dr. John Holland's pastorate in New Lenox.

In Dr. Holland's address, he spoke on, "What the Church Means to Us," recalling his childhood in his parents' home and his youth away to school, and other incidents, which included those occurring at New Lenox.

The closing song, was the theme song of the charge which Dr. Holland now has: "The Little Brown Church in the Vale". Then Dr. Holland sang a verse of it in German and then Rev. Miller led the group in the singing of the song again, using the words "New Lenox Church" instead of "The Little Brown Church".

A most pleasant social hour followed the close of the service where refreshments were served in the church dining room.

"The Christmas Nutcracker", a play fantasy based on Tschalkowsky's Nutcracker Suite, will be presented by the Mokena grade school Thursday evening, December 21, in the school gymnasium, starting at 8 o'clock.

The play's colorful costumes, gay and rhythmic music and clever dialogue make an evening of good entertainment. The second part of the program will feature that jolly old man, Santa Claus, and following his visit the audience and students will sing Christmas carols together.

Will County PMA Committee Elected

Conrad Borms of Peotone was re-elected chairman of the Will County Production and Marketing administration committee at the county convention held in Joliet on November 28.

Lloyd C. Smith of Plainfield was re-elected vice chairman and Adam F. Heisner of Peotone, re-elected as regular member.

James A. Patterson, Plainfield, was elected first alternate and Russell H. Lauffer, Mokena, was elected as second alternate. These committees were elected to administer the Agricultural Conservation program, loan programs, acreage allotments, market quotas, and sugar program and other assignments in the coming year.

"It is difficult at the present time," said Mr. Borms, "to predict the full extent of our activities and responsibilities. Changing work conditions may have a great effect on each and every farmer, and may make it necessary for us to assume added committee assignments. We shall endeavor to meet any call, and to carry out our work to the best of our ability. We hope it is also understood that all people of this county should feel free to call at the county office, 157 North Ottawa Street, Joliet, relative to information or assistance on any PMA problems."

Start on Mokena School Addition

Work on the new addition to the Mokena Public school building has been started. The foundation is laid and brick and glass brick for the work has been delivered. The work was progressing well until the recent cold spell and snow according to Lawrence Kohl, secretary of the school board.

Winter in all its fury paid a visit to this section last Thursday with a storm such as has not been seen here for quite a number of years.

The snow started falling Wednesday, increased in volume and did not stop until midnight Thursday, when eight inches of snow fell. In many places there were drifts six to eight feet deep. It was called a blizzard and those who were caught out in it well know that it is true. Trains and buses were behind in their schedules; the new Rock Island coaches with automatic opening and closing of doors ran into difficulty when the doors were frozen and could not open. When they finally were opened they would not close.

Many workers returning from Chicago in their own autos got along pretty well until they came to the junction of Route 6 and Wolf road. There it seemed the wind blew the snow so violently it was impossible to see and they took refuge in the Six and Seven restaurant at the corner. All during the night travelers kept entering the restaurant where they stayed all night. The next day they braved the high snow and worked at digging out their cars.

Mr. Victor Zaloudek of Marley left his home at 6 pm. to meet his daughter Arlene at the Mokena Rock Island depot. On their return trip they got as far as the Earl Sayers home on 167th street where their car was stalled in the huge drift. They stayed all night with the Sayers as did also Mr. Donald Reid, who had made his way from Chicago but could get no further than the Earl Sayers, where he also spent the night, all within a mile and a half of their homes.

The next day their neighbor, Loren Sass, built a platform on his tractor, drove across the fields and brought their refugees to their homes. Their cars were later dug out.

After the ceremony, the bride placed a bouquet of red roses at the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Miss Mary Alice Knowles sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Her shrimp colored satin gown was fashioned with a full skirt, short cuffed sleeves, and Peter Pan collar. She wore a matching polka dot, short mitts, and carried a mixed bouquet of bronze and shrimp colored flowers.

Mrs. Lawrence Schneider, bridesmaid, was dressed identical to the maid of honor.

William Knippel of Frankfort was best man and LaVerne Schneider was groomsmen. Ushers were Howard Cruise, brother of the bride, and Martin Knowles, uncle of the groom.

A wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and immediate families in the home of the bride's parents, at 11:30. A reception was held in the evening at the Veteran's Hall in Mokena with approximately 300 guests attending. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth. White tapers in silver candelabra flanked the four tiered wedding cake. Bouquets of bronze mums decorated the table.

Mrs. John Cruise, Jr., Mrs. Frank Kanne, Mrs. Thomas Cruise, Mrs. Howard Cruise and Mrs. Paul Bales served. Mrs. Bales, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake.

The bride's mother wore a black and white print crepe dress, matching white hat and gloves. Mrs. Knowles selected a Royal Blue crepe dress with white hat and gloves. Both mothers had a corsage of white mums.

After a short wedding trip the couple is residing for the present with his parents.

The new bride graduated from JTHS and is employed at the Commercial Credit corporation in Joliet. The groom also graduated from JTHS and is engaged in Agriculture.

Poll on the Meaning of Christmas

We give here part of the broad cast address delivered last Christmas by the late Rev. Walter A. Maier on the International Lutheran Hour:

"How many of our children know the true meaning of Christmas? A recent investigation questioned one thousand Protestant and Catholic children in twenty-one cities. Thirty-two per cent of them did not know the town where Jesus was born, thirty-three per cent did not know the country, fifty-five per cent did not know whose Son Christ is, seventy-six per cent did not know who ruled Palestine when our Savior was born. These were Sunday School children, too! If the fourteen million youngsters under the age of thirteen years who have absolutely no religious training whatever were called upon to explain the meaning of this day by far the most of them would show that they know more of Santa Claus than they do of the Savior. 'Even churches sometimes need a reemphasis on the Redeemer's love. When the pastor of a Georgia congregation can address and encourage the Ku Klux Klan; when some congregations forbid the Negro to cross their threshold; when certain exquisitely decorated sanctuaries in the fashionable suburbs today have no real room and welcome for the laborer and his family, we must pray and work with redoubled fervor to have Christ's all inclusive love crowd out the pride and arrogance that narrow lives and make selfish men look upon those whom the Son of God loves and delivers from the curse of eternal death."

We do feel that if such an investigation were taken in the many communities in this wide area that the percentage of right answers would be high because most children here do attend some church or Sunday school. Yet here also, how high would the percentage be of those who do not attend any church, or listen to a radio church broadcast?

Corn Yields Boosted 34 Bushels Per Acre By Better Soil Care

CROP yield profits are being boosted as much as $20 per acre through conservation farming methods, including contour cultivation, large amounts of fertilizer and the return of crop residues on Purdue University's Throckmorton farm, agronomists report.

Yields have risen steadily since 1942, according to the agronomists. The 1949 average net profit per acre was nearly twice that of the average seven years before.

In the tests, some fields have been farmed with common practices; others with a conservation system. Both groups have a four-year rotation of corn, soybeans, wheat and mixed legume-grass meadow. Fields receiving the common treatment are straight-row farmed. The conservation fields are farmed on the contour and receive larger amounts of fertilizer, plus crop residues.

Additional supplies of plant food, organic matter and moisture have teamed up to boost crop yields on the conservation fields, the agronomists say. As a result of these benefits, corn yields have averaged 106 bushels per acre on the conservation fields, compared with 72 bushels on the common fields in the 1942-49 period. Soybean yields have averaged 37 bushels per acre compared to 30; wheat, 34 bushels as against 27; and hay yields 2.2 tons per acre compared with 1.2 tons.

The tests are carried on cooperatively by the Research Branch of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service and the Purdue Agricultural Experiment Station.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Here's An "Expert" Example!

When our Main Street parking problem cropped up again, we announced a strict one-hour parking policy, and swore in extra deputies to enforce it.

We also sent over to the State Capitol for a traffic expert, to give us pointers. He turned out to be real helpful—spent a whole afternoon with us talking about zoning and such. And when he left the building he found a ticket on his car for overtime parking!

Could have gotten sore, I guess—or asked us to "fix" the ticket. But instead, he insisted on going over to the Sheriff's Office and paying his fine.

From where I sit, it's good to know people, like that young fellow, who refuse to be treated any different than anyone else. City people and farmers—those of us who prefer cider and those who'd rather have a cool glass of temperate beer—we're all entitled to the same privileges. That is, so long as what we do doesn't conflict with the law of the land.

LINCOLN ESTATES

Lincoln Estates is still digging out of last Thursday's blizzard which was one of the worst experienced out here in recent years. Many of the men of the community were not able to reach home at all that night and some were still stranded the next night. Several people were involved in minor accidents but none was injured. Ann Rutledge school was closed last Friday day due to the inability of Mrs. Carpenter to travel the roads from Mokena to here.

St. Anthony's church on Lincoln highway will hold a bake sale in the church basement on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 16 from 12 to 3 o'clock. All are invited to attend and to plan on buying their week end baked goods at this sale.

The children of Ann Rutledge school will hold their Christmas entertainment Tuesday, Dec. 19 in the school at 7:30 p.m. As well as music and a play, the program will feature their rhythm band and the tap dancing class. Everyone is invited to attend as this promises to be a real top flight entertainment.

Wednesday, Dec. 20, the room-mothers will sponsor a party for the school children which will feature games, treats and a gift exchange. School will close after the party and will not reopen until Jan. 2. Friends of Mrs. Julia P. Miller of Plant City, Fla., will be happy to know that she is recovering from an operation on her eyes for cataracts. Mrs. Miller, who is the mother of Mrs. Isabel Davidson is well known to many of the people of Lincoln Estates through her visits here. She was operated on in St. Joseph hospital in Tampa, Fla. Nov. 9.

Mrs. Harriet Bissell, 80th avenue spent the past week at the home of the Jim Hunters in Chicago due to the road conditions.

Ann Rutledge PTA had its regular monthly meeting Dec. 11. Plans were made for a card party to be held in January. This being the annual Christmas meeting there was a gift exchange in which everyone received a very nice surprise package. There was singing of Christmas carols and refreshments were nicely served by Bernice Steck, Helen Van Donk and Mrs. Hatz.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Studnicki, Hillside road, spent last week in Herrin where they attended the National Dog Field trials.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler, attended the Christmas dinner dance of the Chicago Heights Traffic club held at Surma's last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Clint Edmonson has been confined to her bed for the past week suffering from flu.

Mrs. Martha Ott, Rt. 30, underwent a critical operation in St. Joseph's hospital in Joliet Dec. 6. She will be confined to the hospital till next Saturday when it is hoped she will be well enough to return to her home.

Small Boy at Christmas

The calendar has dwindled till at last the months have shortened to a week, a day. And all the dreams he hoarded in the past will be reality a few brief hours away. He squirms in bed, and pushes sleep aside. To savor longer the sweet expectation of what the day will bring. Dark eyes glow wide. With visions of the tinsel-laden tree. And soon, reluctantly, his eyelids close. The clock's hands spin around until the dawn. Will rouse him, as with sudden joy he knows. It's Christmas and the night of waiting gone. With barefoot leaps he hurtles down the stair. Then, spellbound, gazes at the wonders there. —Mae Winkler Goodman

Winning Every Day

Lesson for December 17, 1950

SCRIPTURE: II Corinthians 11:16-33; 12:7-10; Philippians 3:4-11; II Timothy 4:1-8; JAMES 1:2-4.
DEVOTIONAL READING: II Timothy 4:1-8.

THE idea that religion is the opiate of the people has been circulated only by those who know nothing about religion from the inside. The Christian religion is no kind of drug. You may hunt through the New Testament from end to end and find not a single expression reminding you of a drug store. What you do find, over and over again, is the idea that this life, for the Christian, is a fight, a race, a grueling test run. What Christianity offers (among other things) is power: power to run the race, to stand the test, to win the fight.

Paul Knew How It Was

THE Christian life is a fight ... but not a losing fight. Countless Christians have proved it by living it. We can pass up the number one example, Jesus himself, because some people might say that he had access to some source of power that ordinary men do not have.

Look, if you please, at Paul of Tarsus. There was a man who looked trouble in the eye many a day. In fact, there never was a single day when troubles left him free and easy.

Whatever we may say about Jesus, Paul certainly had no special "pipeline to heaven" which any other Christian might not have. Yet he lived, so to speak, on top of his troubles, not down under them. Even now, centuries later, Paul's struggles are still an asset for every Christian; each one of us can say, "Well, if Paul made it, I can."

On Many Fronts

AT the end of Paul's life he wrote those famous words, "I have fought a good fight." Our Scripture brings that statement down to cases. What was Paul's fight?

To his Corinthian friends he tosses off a rather hair-raising list of adventures, disasters and calamities through which he had passed. We don't need details. Just to name them is enough: famine, robbers, beatings, jail sentences, riots, three different shipwrecks ... What a life! But Paul rode these things; they did not ride him.

Or again, there was his "thorn in the flesh." Nobody knows certainly what that was; but it was no doubt some kind of physical ailment or pain, and it did not go away. Pain is often far harder to stand than some exciting experience like a shipwreck. In the face of pain such as Paul suffered, one cannot fight back. All one can do is to take it. Yet Paul lived through this, too. It was part of his "good fight."

To the Philippians, again, he reports another sort of victory, though he makes no boast about it. He had conquered his besetting sin of conceit and pride. Paul was by no means a naturally humble man. Yet when a man can write as he does in Phil. 3:4-11, it is plain that he had crushed pride down and out. Perhaps Paul, like many another man, had found that his worst enemy was himself, his worse self.

In the second letter to Timothy, written at the end of his life, he tells of still other kinds of things that cost him a struggle—friends abandoning him, a trial that went against him. Yet these too he had not simply endured but conquered.

Available Victory

TWO thoughts come to us from all of this.

One is, that it takes a fight to make a man. That is to say if Paul had had a perfectly easy life, he would never have been the grand character we know. For him, and for many a Christian since, reverses, disappointments, suffering and pain, tragedy, sorrow and mistakes will contribute to creative spiritual experiences if these are met in the Christian way.

And that leads to the other thought: The Christian way to power, the Christian secret of living a winning life every day, is today exactly the same as what Paul said it was: the strength of God, "made perfect in weakness." The Christian never becomes God; but God's grace and power can live in the Christian.

Is not the Christian who lives the victorious life, after all, left to ourselves we should bog down. But God be thanked, he does not leave us to ourselves! It is not we who win, but He in us. This does not excuse us from the fight; God lives not in the lazy but in the loyal.

MARLEY

New Lenox 3133

Mr. Lynn Crandall, aged 86, passed away Monday, Dec. 11 at his home in Chicago. The funeral service was held there Wednesday. Mr. Crandall, an uncle of the late Alfred Sproat, for many years owned the farm on Maple Street, now owned by the Joseph Liberty's. Mrs. Mervin Moore, a former Marley resident, was recently elected president of the Illinois club at San Jose, Calif. The members of this club are people who have come to California from Illinois. In California there are similar clubs from different states, like the Iowa club, the Tennessee club, etc.

The Moore's and their daughter Momi are moving into their new ranch home at Santa Clara this week.

The annual Christmas eve program will be held Christmas eve at the Marley church. A pageant will be presented by the Sunday school. There will also be recitations and instrumental numbers.

The annual Christmas party of the Marley Woman's club was held Wednesday at the Marley church. A potluck dinner was served at noon. The hostesses were Mrs. Elmer Tollerud and Mrs. Everett Bell. After the dinner the president, Mrs. Charles Sievert, presided during the business session.

The delegate's report was given by Mrs. Julian Gorham. The report on legislation was given by Mrs. Loren Sass.

The president appointed a committee of Mrs. Loren Sass, Mrs. Wayne Peterson and Mrs. Victor Zaloudek to buy gifts for the patients at the Will County sanatorium.

Mrs. George Jahneke presented the program of Christmas carols and stories. Secret pals were revealed with gifts. Before each member could receive her gift she had to read a poem which she had written. This proved to be very amusing and entertaining. A copy of each poem will be placed in the club scrapbook. New pals were drawn for the coming year. The hostesses for January will be Mrs. Alfred Sproat and Mrs. Edward Sproat.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison entertained at a party in honor of their aunt Mrs. Margaret Clark of California, Tuesday evening. Present were Mrs. Ruth Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wegner, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dale.

Mrs. Louise Cutler returned home Saturday after spending several weeks with relatives at Plainwell, Mich.

Funeral services for Mrs. Frank Johnson were held at the Carlson funeral home in Joliet Monday afternoon. Mrs. Johnson died December 8 following a short illness. She was a former resident having lived with her family on Willow street where the Steyer family now reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sass were guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. George Vogt at Palos Park.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Gillette and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lauffer and family were dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sproat.

John and Glenn Cutler of Plainwell, Mich. spent the week end in the home of Mrs. Madge Storm.

Miss Lois Sproat attended the University of Illinois alumni banquet at the Woodruff Hotel in Joliet Monday night.

You Carry DAYLIGHT

"BEAR"Headlight Service

For safety's sake, headlights should be checked at regular intervals. Ordinary driving conditions will disturb the aim of headlights, cause filaments to sag, dislocate the reflector. Dirty or dusty lens, tarnished reflectors and corroded socket contacts all rob you of light output.

Why Risk Your Life, Your Car and the Lives of Others?

It will take only a jiffy to check and correct your headlights. A few minutes spent with our headlight doctor may be the means of preventing a costly and, perhaps, fatal accident.

Joliet Junior College

by Joanne Martie

Junior college full-time day enrollments throughout the United States have taken a decided drop, it has been learned by surveys of college papers and reports.

But a surprising trend of a definite increase has taken place in the enrollment of evening school and extended day or adult programs. The Los Angeles City College Collegian reported that the daytime enrollment is 6500, while the evening enrollment on the first two nights was 3825 with registrations to continue during the entire week. This decided interest of adults in education has led several schools to develop specialized programs and courses on business subjects, and home and family living.

Westbrook Junior college, Portland, Maine, has greatly expanded its adult education program by offering such subjects as Psychology of Everyday Living, Child Development, Making Your Home Attractive, Child Study Groups, Creative Writing, Lampshade Construction, etc. It also has developed courses in traffic management such as: Motor Carrier Rates and Tariffs, Fundamentals of Transportation, and Loss and Damage Claims.

Other schools, such as Mason City Junior college, Mason City, Iowa, are making all out campaigns to increase adult enrollments by reaching citizens of the city with bulletins.

These enlarged school programs are making up a great deal of the loss suffered by day school enrollments (Obtained from the American Association of Junior Colleges Bulletin.)

The World Situation. During World War II Stalin was dictator over 200 million Russians. Today five years later, he is dictator over 900 million people. He has surrounded Russia with satellite nations, puppet nations, iron curtain nations, and so Joe Stalin today sits in Moscow like a big fat spider in the center of his web. He pulls a string and the flames of war break out in Korea, and we have to send our boys there and spend 3 or 4 billion dollars to put out the flames. Then he will pull a string in Indo-China, in India, in Siam, in Turkey, in Greece, in Yugoslavia, or in Berlin, and the flames of war will break out. And again we will have to send our boys and spend billions of dollars to put out those war flames. After three or four years we will be exhausted, bleed white; and Stalin, without losing a man of his own, will then be ready to take over.

During these same five years we have spent $100 billion to "contain" Communism, to keep it from spreading. This we have been calling a "cold war." Our cold war has been under the management of Dean Acheson, Alger Hiss, Owen Lattimore, Dr. Jessup and others. Isn't it about time to change our cold war leaders, to place someone in charge of our interests in Asia that knows something about the situation there, someone like General Douglas MacArthur? We should get rid of Acheson, the man who got us into the present mess in Asia, and rely on the advice of General MacArthur.

The situation in Korea today is very critical. It has become that way because we have placed General MacArthur under the orders of the United Nations, and the U. N. refuses to follow his advice; they prevent MacArthur from bombing the Communist Chinese troop concentrations and war supplies in Manchuria. General MacArthur is being ordered today to fight with one hand tied behind his back, and American boys are dying as a result of it. This is the result of our State Department's "panty waist" foreign policy.

Statehood for Alaska and Hawaii—The House of Representatives passed bills last summer providing statehood for Alaska and Hawaii. Will the Senate ratify the action of the House at this short lame duck session of the Congress? The writer thinks the Senate will not. Why? Alaska has a population of 40,000 white people, plus some 60,000 Indians and Eskimos. Should the 40,000 white people in Alaska be given the same voting strength in the United States Senate as the State of Illinois has with its 8,750,000 people? That is the problem the Senate faces, expressed in its simplest terms.

Hawaii has a population of 430,000 people, 80 to 90 per cent of whom are of mixed Japanese, Chinese and native stock. Are they ready for the responsibilities of statehood, and are we willing to give the people of Hawaii the same voting strength in the United States Senate as Illinois has with its 8,750,000 people?

The argument has been made that both Alaska and Hawaii are vital parts of our Defense Line, that they must be fortified, and utilized as war bases, and therefore should be admitted as states. This argument is not a valid one because both Alaska and Hawaii are United States Territories, are now owned, controlled, and governed by the United States, and statehood status would not facilitate in any way the use we may want to make of them in our defense program.

The United States Senate has extraordinary constitutional powers not matched by any other legislative body in the world. It has the power to ratify or refuse all important Presidential appointments. It can veto the expressed will of the House of Representatives. These extraordinary powers should be most jealously guarded and not given out too freely.

A Christmas Story

Once there was a tiny country church, watched over by a plump and kindly little minister who also was the small Sunday school teacher. During the children's Christmas program, one little youngster asked her pastor which came first, Santa Claus, or the Christ Child.

"I'll tell you a story about that," said the minister, smilingly, and began thus—

Santa Claus and his wife were sitting in their parlor one wintry night when all of a sudden there came the sound of singing, and bells ringing, and the noise of many people hurrying along the street.

"What," said Santa to his wife, "is that?"

"Why," said Mrs. Claus, "a little child was born tonight in a stable just outside of town. Poor baby, he must be very cold."

"What are we sitting here for, then," demanded Santa, "Let us take the newborn a gift—and a warm gown. Hurry now, Mama."

All Mr. and Mrs. Claus had for a gift was a big, shiny red apple, and a warm gown, one of Mr. Claus' big red sweaters.

They gathered these up, and hurried toward the stable where the Babe was said to lie. As they approached the building they were amazed at the crowd thronging to the small structure, and ashamed of their gift before the magnificent riches that were being carried to the door. Mrs. Claus didn't want to go in with the polished red apple and the big red sweater, but Santa Claus insisted, because the boxes of jewels and incense couldn't keep a child warm, nor be as pleasing to his touch as the satiny feel of a smooth round apple.

When they came to the manger where the Babe was lying, the Child looked up at Santa, smiled and reached His tiny hands toward the shiny apple.

And the Lord, who was watching over this Child, as He watches over every child, spoke thus to Santa:

"Santa Claus, because you had kindness in your heart unto a little child and because you brought an unknown babe joy, from this day forward you will live forever in the hearts of all little children and bring them joy each year at this blessed time in memory of the One who was born today."

Santa Affected By Restrictions

It's difficult to understand, but the genial spirit of Christmas, Santa Claus himself, hasn't always had it easy. There have been occasions when laws or traditions or regulations have put certain curbs on the old gentleman. Here are some examples:

In Newark, N. J., Santa is required to pass a stiff physical examination before he can serve in a department store. And even then he is barred from kissing any of the children who perch upon his knee.

In Charleston, S. C., charity Santas have been forbidden to make a pitch on public streets on the grounds that children flocking in to see them may create a traffic hazard. And in Washington a few years ago, when the postmaster general was asked to print a Santa Claus stamp at Christmas time he rejected the proposal with a scornful, "I should say not!"

Outside the U.S.A., Santa has had trouble, too. In Montreal, Canada, an influential organization fought against holding of the city's annual Santa Claus parade on the ground that it was "merely a display of grotesque and vulgar buffoonery." A prominent journalist in Rio de Janeiro fostered a movement to do away with Santa Claus (Papa Noel) in Brazil and substitute a toy-bearing grandfather Indian. In Mexico City the minister of education recommended that the Aztec god, an influential organization Nick, should bring gifts to children.

In the field of opinion, Santa has encountered some detractors. A Prof. Ivan E. McDougall, sociologist at Goucher college, Baltimore, declared: "The Santa Claus myth has lived too long. Parents should substitute philosophy"—whatever that is.

A Toronto psychiatrist got in his blast: "It should be made clear to children," he said, "that Santa Claus is not necessarily a real man any more than any other character out of a story book."

MANY CARS IN DITCHES—
Auto Service company at Mokena, were returning to their home at Marley about 6:30 Thursday evening they got as far as the Fred Wannemacher farm on Maple street and there they were stuck. As the snow was falling so fast and the wind blowing so strong they could not see where to drive and landed in a ditch. Believing they were not far from the Glen Peterson farm home, they started walking through three and four foot drifts and against the heavy wind and snow for a quarter of a mile.

When they finally came to the Peterson's home they were nearly frozen and would not have been able to go much farther. Miss Swanberg's babushka was frozen to her hair. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson worked over them for several hours, rubbing, first with cold water, gradually warming it, until circulation returned to their legs feet and body. They were given a stimulant and hot soup and stayed with the Peterson's over night. They both suffered from shock and frost bite, but felt much better the next day. Mr. Peterson and his helper dug out their car Friday when they returned to their home.

Both were back at work Monday. Miss Swanberg is bookkeeper in her brother's place of business. Not far from the Gardner's stalled car were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones and their daughter Margaret stuck in the same drift. As they had enough gas in their car, they kept it running all night and in that way kept quite warm, staying in the car. In the morning they made their way to the Fred Wannemacher home. He later took them to their home in his sleigh.

Several other stranded people spent the night at the Handorf and Storm and Jensen homes.

On Lincoln highway, the Russell Stanislaus and Jake DePortos kept stranded people over night. Another employee of the Swanberg Farm and Auto Service nearly lost his life. He was 20 year old Louis Stelter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Stelter who live a mile south of the Lincoln highway on Wolf road. He had left for his home at the usual closing hour and when he had not arrived by 7 o'clock his father called Mr. Swanberg to inquire of his whereabouts. Learning Louis was not home, Mr. Swanberg and four helpers with two trucks, started out looking for him. One of the men walked ahead at times with a flash light to show the drivers where the road was. It was at this time when the flash light revealed a radio antenna sticking out of a snow bank in a ditch that they discovered young Stelter in his car. The only part of the car showing was the antenna.

Stelter wrapped himself in a blanket and tried to keep as warm as possible. They dug him out and took him back to the Swanberg home where he was warmed and stayed all night. His car was also dug out the next day.

Hugh Deamore, who drives the Signal department truck for the E. J. & E. railroad in Joliet, was returning home about 5 o'clock when his car stalled on the approach of the Owen hill on Route 30. He burned many fuses to prevent travelers hitting his car. Finally a car driven by Roy Kropp, with his son David, stopped when they recognized him, and as they could not help him, brought word to the Cooper & Hostert garage in Mokena. They went at once and brought him and the car home, pushing the car all the way.

The highway maintenance men worked hard and long to get the roads open and it was only a few days until regular traffic was again as usual.

At Orland Park the Yunker Implement kept open all night when they were crowded with autos pulling in which were filled with snow. Other travelers left their cars and walked to the Implement Service. The motel on Wolf road was filled to capacity with stranded motorists.

Albert Schultdt, coming from Blue Island to his home west of Tinley Park, got as far as Tinley where he had to stay with relatives. There are many other like instances.

All schools were closed the next day and the school buses could not travel.

TAXPAYERS FOR HIGHER GAS TAX

That heavy transport trucks were not paying their fair share of license fees and gas taxes; only four expressed sentiments that trucks were already paying their fair share.

On the question of whether the state government needs more money for purposes other than highway construction, the audience voted an emphatic "no" by a margin of 49-6 recommending that the Legislature do not approve additional tax revenues.

By a vote of 44-7 the group rejected the proposal to enact a new law to recreate the office of county assessment supervisor, and by a vote of 47-11 the audience went on record as favoring a change in the present statutes so that it would be possible for the general public to find out who is on public relief rolls, and for what amounts. The Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois has suggested that the state investigate relief matters to expose possible chiseling by relief clients.

The Joliet meeting is one of a series being sponsored throughout downstate Illinois by the Federation, to determine public sentiment on key issues as a guide for future recommendations to the Legislature. State Representative Warren L. Wood, Plainfield, and State Representative John M. King, Wheaton, attended the meeting.

Interesting Facts About the Origin Of Mince-Meat Pie

A wealth of tradition is covered by the crust of the Yuletide mince pie.

Although few people today know it, the pie represents the cradle of the Christ Child surrounded by the gifts of the Magi. It was made originally in oval form, to symbolize the cradle, and the varied ingredients were the gifts.

At one time mince-meat pie was banned, and at still another time in its history it was the cause of Christmas itself being abolished for a brief period.

For many years in England during the time of Oliver Cromwell, the custom of feasting and drinking at Christmas was regarded as worldly and sensual, and the more strict Puritans refused to eat mince-meat pie during the holiday season. This prejudice was finally overcome after the Restoration.

In the New World, during the first half century after the Pilgrims' arrival at Plymouth, similar troubles caused the banning of mince-meat pies and Christmas. In 1659 and for several years thereafter, there was no Christmas in New England as a result of an argument over the shape and meaning of mince-meat pies. Eventually the indignation spent itself and the ban was lifted.

A pie which no other can approach in the intricacies of its creation mince-meat pies originally were made almost entirely of meat seasoned with spices. Fruit, chiefly currants was added, and probably because the dish was regarded as a sweet, the fruit content was gradually increased until mince-meat became a mixture of fruit and spices, without the addition of meat.

The whole world has a part in the making of a mince-meat pie, according to the American Bakers Association. There are lemons, citrons, and oranges from Florida and California; apples from a half dozen states; currants from Greece; raisins from the Pacific Coast; sugar and syrups from Louisiana and Cuba; suet from the middle west; spices from far away Ceylon, and other ingredients from far and near.

By and large, mince-meat pies have not changed noticeably since those early days when New England cooks began preparations for making the mince-meat weeks in advance of the actual pie baking.

The greatest difference occurs not in the ingredients, but in the preparation. The American bakers use tons of the same high quality ingredients as are used in the home in making care of the demand for this traditional part of the Christmas dinner.

History, tradition, and its own merits have made mince-meat pie one of the most interesting of all food products - rightfully occupying its place of honor at the Yuletide feast.

As Samuel Penys stated in his famous diary about his 1662 Christmas dinner:

"We had, besides a good chine of beef and other good cheer, eighteen mince-meat pies."

Raymond Sippel Herd Again Leads

According to the monthly report of DHIA Association No. 1 tester, Eino Saarela, the Holstein herd owned by Raymond Sippel of Mokena led his association in November with an average production of 1045 pounds of milk and 36.6 lbs. of fat.

Other high averaging herds in this association in November are: Louis Lauffer & Son of Mokena, 917, 340; Fred H. Holm, Worth, 865, 334; Wm. Bernard & Son, Mokena, 845, 313; Glenwood School for Boys, Glenwood, 891, 29.5. These herds were all Holsteins except the herd of Fred H. Holm & Son which was Brown Swiss.

Louis Lauffer & Son had the highest producing individual cow which produced 1720 pounds of milk and 88.0 pounds of fat. They also owned the fourth high individual cow with a production of 1710 pounds of milk and 70.0 lbs. of fat.

Third high producing cow was a Brown Swiss owned by Mall Tool company farms of Crete with 1640 pounds of milk and 71.0 pounds of fat.

Holsteins owned by Wm. Bernard & Sons and Herbert Kohl of Matteson tied for fifth place, with 1960 pounds of milk and 69.0 lbs. of fat and 1110 pounds of milk and 69.0 pounds of fat respectively.

Mr. Saarela makes the following comments in his report: "At Glenwood School for Boys, sanitation is a must. Each cow's udder is washed before milking, a strip cup is used, and milkor test cups are dipped into a warm chlorine solution after each cow is milked. Another pail of warm chlorine water is used to dip the cows' teats after milking also. After milking is completed, all utensils are washed and raked. Everything is rinsed in chlorine water before milking too."
